

Lecture series at the headquarters of the AU

Starting on October 20, organized by the Headquarters of the University of Alicante, begins the cycle of conferences "Heretics, nuns, witches and prophets. Religiosity of women in modernity," which is intended to rapprochement to practices women religious in modernity. With the development cycle is known of his spirituality and how they deal with their beliefs, which concept had of them and how they influenced social behaviors in the Ancien Regime. The cycle has been coordinated by Inmaculada Fernández he Arrillaga and collaborate Center for Women's Studies (CEM) and the Department of Medieval History, Modern History and Historiographic Sciences, University of Alicante.

SCHEDULE:

Thursday October 20, 2011. WITCHCRAFT IN THE MODERN AGE. Angie Simonis Sampedro, Universidad de Alicante

Thursday November 3, 2011 THE FACES OF THE CLOSING IN MODERN SPAIN. Javier Sanchez Burrieza, University of Valladolid

Thursday November 17, 2011 WOMEN before the Holy Office. Martinez Carlos Tornero, Universidad de Alicante.

Thursday December 15, 2011 WOMEN'S PROPHET: A MODEL OF SOCIAL PROJECTION IN THE MODERN AGE. Francisco Pons Fuster, University of Valencia

SCHEDULE

The sessions will begin at 20:15 am

CERTIFICATION

Certificate of the Institute of Education Sciences (ICE). To obtain this will require a minimum attendance of 80% and the payment of a fee.

